Gregory Hayes, director, 2 copies. Greg Hayes' notes: "We did "Four Weddings and a Concert" in May and June of 2000. Though the program says it did, it did NOT take place at St. John's [Episcopal Church] in Northampton. Other old-timers may remember that a sudden thunderstorm that day cut power to a portion of Northampton, including St. John's. 'Can't do a program involving a church organ without power. So at the last moment we moved it down the street to the Unitarian Society. Not our best outing--and, as it happened, this was the one that the Mass Arts Lottery Council evaluators were attending. We didn't get the grant."

2023-2024: 50th Anniversary Season of Da Camera Singers

December in New England: 1673-2014. The program featured music that would have been sung in New England from the late 1600s (material from the Bay Psalm Book, the first book published in the United States) through to the twenty-first century. The element that ties the program together is that all the composers lived in New England at some point, studied here and composed while here.

The first half of the program also included New England poets. We traveled through the basic Psalms, to The New England Singing schools (Billings, Lowell, Swan, Holyoke, and more), a female Shaker music composer, Edward MacDowell, and Amy Beach.

The second half of the program included music of Nathaniel Dett and Ulysses Kay, arrangements of carols by Alice Parker, arrangements by Robert DeCormier, and the Christmas Cantata by Daniel Pinkham. One of the DeCormier arrangements is a song made famous by Peter, Paul and Mary, "Don't Let the Lights Go Out," inspired by Hanukkah. Heather Reichgott, piano and organ, Ted Thornton, guitar for Light One Candle. Two performances: Friday Dec. 1, 2023, Wesley United Methodist Church, 98 N. Maple St., Hadley, MA, 7:30 p.m., and Saturday, Dec. 2, 2023, Trinitarian Congregational Church, 147 Main St., Northfield, MA, 4 p.m. The Northfield concert was part of the closing celebrations of the Northfield 350th anniversary year. Sheila Heffernon, conductor. One printed copy.

For the Love of Singing: A Patchwork Quilt of Some of Our Favorite Pieces. The program featured selections spanning the fifty year history of Da Camera Singers. Special guest artists included former conductor Gregory Hayes, organ and piano, Julie Carew, cello, Jessica Corwin, violin, and Christine Mortensen, French Horn. Da Camera accompanist, Heather Reichgott, played piano on some selections and sang with the Altos on others. Three charter members of Da Camera were among the singers: Nancy Babb, Judy Nissenbaum, and Charlene Scott. Cassette Tapes of Unclear Provenance --

1 tape labeled "Byrd/Bancheri." On Greg Hayes' list I see Bancheri listed at "83b," so I'm guessing this tape was made in the Fall of 1983.

1 tape labeled "Da Camera Hadley."

1 tape labeled "Da Camera 1st Half."

1 tape labeled "Gesualdo Brahms Handel Gounod Lasso Thompson." Checking Greg Hayes' list this could be Fall, 1982, Fall, 1983 or Fall, 1992.

Program notes include the following: "This performance of the Duruflé Requiem has been made possible by a bequest from the estate of Frederic L. Cheyette, our fellow chorister and friend for more than four decades. A founding member of Da Camera Singers, he died in Amherst in 2015. We also want to remember our comrades Charles Moran and Steven Tower, both of whom also died in 2015. Charlie served as singer and Treasurer of the group, Steve as singer and Vice-President. Each of these friends added immeasurably to our lives and the lives of those who loved them. We miss their energy and their over-brimming love of music and of life.” This concert was a benefit for Soldier On, a non-profit organization working in partnership with the Department of Veterans Affairs to provide shelter and support for veterans in need. At the top of the notes for the 25th anniversary list, Greg Hayes wrote: “Here, as threatened, is a list of what you’ve sung in the last 25 years. The intention is to offer you an overview of what this group has done, when and with whom (legend below). You might consider it background information for spring concert planning. A greatest hits concert? Songs we love to sing? Or, ‘let’s do anything BUT these...'? We'll discuss this eventually. In the meantime, however, rest assured that you've done your part to promote global warming."
